eTutor Alberta

Personal, professional tutoring at your fingertips!

the tutors added a ton of feedback and let me know where in the paper to make corrections. it was really helpful. i am happy and i am going to use ewriting more often now. Such an awesome resource with great helpful tutors! They really put a lot of effort in and it shows in the quality of their feedback! informative helpful hints. this was my first essay in 10 years. I felt they were patient and explained everything perfectly. Super helpful and very fast response. Will definitely be using this service more over the next 2 years of my diploma! I think E- tutoring is essential for online students. Super fast, and so helpful! Lots of good tips. The 3 suggestions improved my document and changed how I would look at writing my next assignment. I appreciate all the time and effort that the tutors put into my papers. It helps me be aware of what my strengths are and which areas i can improve. Thanks so much! The help was very detailed and specific. you guys are doing an awesome job. Thanks so much for your kindness and being so helpful on my paper. The notes on improvements to make were really constructive and the comments on things that were good were encouraging. As this was my first time having someone review an essay, it was extremely helpful. I will use the response with all my essays going forward. Gave me examples and ideas to use. So very helpful! This is a great resource, especially for academic papers. They help keep you on track and with your writing format, such as APA. Helpful tools and helpful people. The eTutoring service was so incredible. The advice and insight that was given was so helpful and really helped me in advancing my writing.
